HEADACHE FOR SCHOOLS . . . Torrance School Supt. J. H. Hull likes children, but the large number in the city give him a headache. Here, he meets the children in the Warren Cross family, whose educations this year will cost about $2600 although the taxes paid by their teacher father will be about $160. Taxes paid by the average homeowner do not pay for the costs of educating even one child, let alone seven, Hull said. Studying out the problem are Hull, father Warren Cross Sr.; Warren Jr., 17; Jim, 15; Ray, 13; Sandra, 13; Sharon, 10; Stephen, 8; and Stewart 5. The three older boys attend South High; the younger children, Calle Mayor Elementary.

18-Year-Old Coed Begins Reign As Grid Queen for El Camino

Miss Camille Hill, 18-year-old Ingelwood coed, crowned Grid Queen of El Camino College Friday night, when the Associated Students staged their annual Grid Dance in the Campus Center.

Crowning theb londe sophomore student, an education major, was Dr. Stuart E. Marsee, president of the college.

Reigning with Miss Hill, the daughter of Mrs. Augusta Hill, are Princesses Joyce Morris and Gayle Pettitt, runners-up in an election which featured 13 candidates. Voting was conducted by the male students on campus.

President Roger Powell of Ingelwood and Leland Jansen of Gardena.

The Queen, a cheerleader at the college, opened her reign over the Saturday night football game in which El Camino met Weber College of Ogden, Utah. She was the recipient of a football autographed by members of the Warrior Varsity football team.

The presentation is a campus tradition initiated when Miss Eileen McIver was crowned as El Camino's first Grid Queen in 1947.

Report About Teachers Due Before TEAC

Members of the Torrance Educational Advisory Committee will learn about the teachers in Torrance next Monday at noon at the Torrance Masonic Hall, 2336 Cabrillo.

Personnel Director Robert Morton and personnel consultants James G. Sibert, Lloyd Reist, and R. K. Petrat will discuss some of the qualifications and qualifications of Torrance's teachers.

Instrumental music teachers will present musical numbers and Assistant Superintendent S. E. Waldrip will present a school construction report.

MISS MORRIS, an 18-year-old liberal arts major from Torrance, is the daughter of Mrs. T. A. Morris. The coed plans to enter employment with the airlines industry.

Miss Pettitt, 19, has aspirations of becoming an airline hostess after completing her education at San Jose State College. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cy Pettitt of Manhattan Beach.

FOR THE Friday night coronation, Miss Hill was escorted by Robert Kovacev, Ingelwood, president of the Associated Men Students. The princesses were accompanied by Vice
